2024 ANNUAL MEETING

In accordance with the Parke County REMC Bylaws, you are hereby notified that two directors will be elected at this year's membership meeting. This year's candidates for directors nominated by the Nominating Committee are Board District 4: Shane Johnson and District 5: Kevin Cox.

Mark Evans
Board President

Chadd Jenkins
CEO

District 4

Incumbent for District 4, Shane Johnson has served two terms on the Parke County REMC Board, earning his Credentialed Cooperative Director Certificate, and is working on completing his Board Leadership Certificate. Shane graduated from Clay City High School and Indiana State University, where he studied Industrial Engineering Technology. For nearly thirty years, Shane and his wife, Emily, have resided on the original A & C Enterprise property in Reelsville, owned and operated by Emily's late father, Stephen D. Clark.

Shane spent 20 years in manufacturing in Clay County before making a career change to focus on conservation. He is currently a Civil Engineering Technician at the USDA-Natural Resources Conservation Service in Greencastle, where he designs and helps implement water and soil conservation practices across twelve counties.

Shane looks forward to the opportunity to continue serving on the Parke County REMC Board of Directors, supporting its members in a continuously changing industry.

District 5

Incumbent for District 5, Kevin Cox has served on the Parke County REMC Board for 21 years, earning his Credentialed Cooperative Director Certificate and the Board Leadership Certificate with the Gold Credential. Presently, he represents Parke County REMC on the Wabash Valley Power Alliance Board.

Alongside his wife, Brenda, they own and operate TST Farms, Inc. and TST Trucking, LLC in southeast Parke County. Kevin served 8 years on the Farm Credit Board, including 4 years as chair and 26 years on the Parke County Farm Bureau Board. He currently serves on the Jackson Township Advisory Board.

He and his wife are very active in their church and community, serving as deacon, song leader, choir director, and adult Sunday school teacher. Kevin enjoys serving as a public speaker/entertainer, making a difference in the world around him. Kevin thanks the membership for the opportunity to serve them in the past and eagerly anticipates the future.
